Foulards, Indias, Poplins

SPEAKING of the Poplins first, we have here a lot of the French-made kind, in which there is rather more silk than wool, woven in a whipcord surface, and woven firmly and hard to prevent slipping. The fabric is, as the silk men term it, "dry" to the touch,—yet it has a splendid lustre, a lustre that seems deep and is abiding under all usage.

The $1.25 kind for $1 a yard.

That tells the price story. It is a special lot at a very special price, and it won't last long. Next, about 200 new styles in PRINTED FOULARDS. -some American, some Lyons, but mostly from Alsace. whence the best come. Newness is everywhere in the lot, new blues and some new prices. 65c. yd. for the very good, to $1.35 for the very best.

-there are new designs, new effects, new printings, new pinks,

Finally about six hundred styles in new Wash Silks; some white on colors, some colors on white, but all the prettiest we could find in a careful search of the market's offerings.

45c. a yard.

Conditions in Carpetings.

THE Carpet store is exhibiting the biggest stock it has ever had. That is no light statement either, for it is a very big carpet store, and its chief is a prodigal buyer in your interests.

Carpets are much like silks in one thing,—it's astonishing how many kinds there are which you don't want. It takes a large stock to suit all tastes, but if there is a taste which we cannot suit to a dot, we have yet to know of it. That's one advantage of heavy buying. The other is, that the figures are fair.

A case in point is shown in some Velvet Carpets of the very highest grade. There are 28 patterns here which should be priced $1.40 and $1.50 a yard, to be in the fashion. We ask

A dollar and ten cents a yard.

Again, some Axminsters,—not the low-pile, light-weight kind, but thick, heavy carpets which have always commanded a price of $1.25 a yard,

Now, 85c. a yard.
